

HARRIS SCHOOL HOUSE.

August 10, 1908.

G. F. Pennington made a trip to Vinita Saturday.

Miss Mary Pondexter visited Miss Eulah Harris Sunday.

Floyd Little is spending a week with his relatives here.

Dr. Nalen was in Vinita Saturday on a business mission.

The farmers are needing rain for the benefit of their crops.

Oscar Hayes, Ray Harris and Fred Tyler were in Big Cabin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Corley were presented with a fine boy Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were guests of Mr. Hayes and family Sunday.

James Ballou and Jack Hall made a trip to Spring creek Saturday.

H. A. Ellis was in Vinita Saturday getting repairs for his hay press.

BLUEJACKET NEWS

Quite a few students will attend the Male and Female Seminary at Tahlequah this session.

Work on the public well has been going on in the way of repair and prospects are fine for a good supply of water.

Haying is in full blast, and the price are $3.75 to $4.00.

Lots of strangers in town looking for Poor Lee's land at small figures and a big talk.

(Warning) carry something in your hip pocket for the grafters and not the snakes.

Some transactions in real estate are going on both in loans and sales.

C. A. Clark of old Oklahoma purchased 30 acres of Bert Bluejacket 1 1/2 miles north of town for $30.00 per acre. Bluejacket is coming along in the eyes of the home seekers.

The Katy bob is a great accommodation to Bluejacket going and returning to the county seat. There's not a day that from 1-2 doz. to 2 doz. of our people go and return the same day.

Colda Gore gave an entertainment to a few select friends Saturday night. Ice cream and cake were served and some of the older heads hit an old fashion quadrille from the French harp on the blue grass.

Bluejacket base ball team played Kelso Sunday at Kelso, scores 14 to 1 in favor of Bluejacket.

Silas D. Bluejacket was in Muskogee Monday.

Hay men are having good weather to harvest the big crop and the corn needs rain very much.

Strayed or Stolen

From Ft. Gibson, Oklahoma, Monday night, July 20, 1908 one pair of mules. One Bay Mare mule 15 hands 1 inch or 15 1/2 hands high, four year old last spring, heavy boned, heavy set has short under jaw or what is called a parrot mouth.

One Bay Horse Mule, heavy set, about 14 hands 3 inches high, 5 year old last spring, nice smooth mule.

I will pay $25 reward for mules, or $50 reward for the thief if stolen or $10 reward for information leading to their recovery.

Address or wire C. D. Gunter, Siloam Springs, Ark.

The Haisell's Sail Tuesday

Ewing Haisell has received a letter stating that his father, W. E. Haisell with Mrs. Haisell and Misses Eva, Clarence and Mary Haisell sailed Tuesday on the steamer Mauritanian, of the Cunard line, for Liverpool, England. The Haisell's will spend only a short time in Europe, visiting London, Paris and other points of interest.

Attend School on Credit

By our new plan. Distance no object as we pay your fare. BEST equipment, courses, faculty and penman. Every graduate of the Combined or Shorthand course HAS A GOOD POSITION. Expenses moderate. Chance to work. It will pay you to write for information. School opens September 1st.

Tulsa Business College,
103-107 Tulsa, Okla.

Believe Alibi Is Easy.

Walter and Wm. Torbett went to Afton this morning. The trial of Bill, as he is known here, on a charge of being implicated in the burglarizing of Harrison's hardware store there Saturday night, came up this afternoon. A number of witnesses, including Officer John Britt, went over to attend the trial and it is thought there will be little difficulty in proving an alibi.

OKOEE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry McCoy of Vinita visited Joe Rogers and family last Sunday.

Protracted meeting at Rogers Springs is quite a success there being already 10 or 12 joiners. Probably the meeting will continue two more weeks.

The Christian people had two sermons delivered to them last Sunday by Rev. Jones in the grove near the school house. Dinner was spread on the grounds.

There was a Sunday school convention at Timber Hill in the grove near the school house.

Bernie Burns has purchased a mule team from T. C. Rogers paying $375 for them he also purchased a fine driving horse from Joe Rogers.

Miss Mary Crouch of Vinita is visiting her brother Harry this week.

Okoe is preparing for her fifth annual fair to be pulled off about September 1st.

Milikan Brothers are drilling a well for T. C. Rogers on some land he recently purchased. The drill was moved from John Caldwell's where they drilled 185 feet before getting plenty of water.

Okoe claims to have a crack baseball team this year made up of Ketchum and Okoe teams. The boys haven't lost a game this season and doesn't intend to.

John Caldwell is bailing hay for the Carslowey boys this week.

ASK FOR FEDERAL AID IN WYCKLIFFE CASE

Muskogee, Aug. 11—A. D. V. Coppidge, prosecuting attorney of Delaware county, has written to the United States district attorney here to the effect that the Wyckliffe brothers who are under indictment for killing two assistant marshals are to be tried at the next term of court and he wants the government to assist him in the prosecution.
